

Optimization and implementation of an agile, scaled organization for autonomous driving and embedding in corporate structure

- Establishment of an effective target management including development roadmaps and reporting
- Calibration and operationalization of the collaboration model between roles in the LeSS Huge model and external interface partners
- Creation of a clearly prioritized and structured 360° backlog linked to the product vision
- Integration of the LeSS Huge working model with the Group's structural and process organization